

Iron Work Farm in Acton, Inc.

P. O. Box 1111

Acton, MA 01720

www.ironworkfarm.org

Iron Work Farm in Acton, Inc. is a preservation organization dedicated to the stewardship of the Jones Tavern and the Faulkner House. The buildings are located in south Acton, both instrumental economically in the formation of Acton.

Calling All Artists!!!

The Iron Work Farm in Acton, Inc. invites you to participate in

Acton 275th Anniversary Paint-Out / Art-Out

Art for Acton: January 1 to September 15.

Show & Sale throughout the Fall at

Jones Tavern, 128 Main Street, Acton, Ma & at

Iron Work Farm's Annual Meeting & Open Tap Room

October 2, 2010 4-8pm

Art created of Acton during 2010 in honor of Acton's 275th Anniversary can be submitted for a show at the historic Jones Tavern through the fall. The opening reception will coincide with the Fall Fundraiser: the IWF Annual Meeting. Live music, a sampling of local artisanal brews & foods from Whole Foods of Bedford highlight the reception. Jones Tavern is hosting the Acton Open Studios, October 23 & 24. Proceeds from art sold will be divided 70% to the artist, 30% as a donation to the Iron Work Farm in Acton, Inc. for the on-going maintenance of our historic houses. Art submitted for the show & sale must be received no later than September 15.

Unsold works must be retrieved from 5-6pm Sunday, October 24.

Please email application to Treasurer@IronWorkFarm.org or mail to

Michaela Moran, PO Box 1111, Acton, MA 01720. For more information call Michaela at 617 968 6220.

Registration Required (No Fee) or visit www.ironworkfarm.org

Name _____

Phone _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

EMAIL _____

Website _____

Methods/media _____

Please email application to Treasurer@IronWorkFarm.org. Mail to Michaela Moran, PO Box 1111, Acton, MA 01720. For more information, call Michaela at 617 968 6220.